

Christians of World Observe Christ's Death

By The Associated Press

Christians throughout the world commemorated today the agony of Christ's death upon the Cross. In Good Friday services, the church anew of the suffering of Jesus Christ—two days before the joyous occasion of His resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Approximately 4,000 visitors, mostly Arab Christians, were in the Arab-controlled Old City of Jerusalem, where most of the holy places are located. Only 400 pilgrims, with few Westerners among them, crossed the Palestine armistice frontier from Israel.

The small number reflected the tense atmosphere in the Middle East in the aftermath of the Sinai war. Travel restrictions were removed too late for any great tourist influx.

But as in the past there was the traditional racing of the Way of the Cross, with pilgrims carrying heavy wooden crosses along the route followed by Jesus from the scene of his trial to the crucifixion on Calvary.

It was Easter week for both Eastern and Western Christians. They follow different calendars, but this year the dates coincide. In addition, Moslems celebrating Pope Pius XII will deliver his Easter Sunday speech to millions over a direct hookup with radio systems of nearly a score of nations. For the first time the papal address will be put on European TV. He speaks at noon, Rome time, from the balcony above the central door of St. Peter's.

In Konnersreuth, Germany, 3,000 pilgrims gathered in the rain outside the cottage of Therese Neumann, the 59-year-old Bavarian woman who each Good Friday appears to suffer the agonies of Crucifixion. In 1926 she was first reported to have displayed the Crucifixion stigmata—marks on her body corresponding to the wounds of Christ.

President Chiang Kai-shek and his wife, both Methodists, delivered Good Friday sermons at their church in a suburb of Taipei, the capital of the Chinese Nationalist stronghold island of Formosa.

Most destruction as a result of high water was reported in the department's Division 9 which includes Baxter, Benton, Boone, Carroll, Stone and Washington counties.

A department spokesman said that damage to State Highway 23 south of Huntsville was estimated at $11,000. Ten thousand dollars damage was reported on State Highway 14 between Oil Through and Newport.

Town Looking for Dynamite Caps

COLLSVILLE, Okla. (AP)—In stead of a needle in a haystack, people in this tiny Oklahoma town were looking for dynamite caps.

And Police Chief Don Brinkley was finding them all over town last night in the coast pocket of a little girl, at an old coal pit, by the hotel.

Luckily, none of the estimated 100 dynamite caps taken by a couple of young teenagers "goofing around" the United Brick Co. had exploded.

"But somebody could get his head blown off," said Brinkley as he led the search. About 85 had been recovered so far.

The boys told the chief they took the caps and some dynamite sticks early Wednesday. Brinkley said apparently some of the caps had been handled by various children in school for two days.

It was not discovered until early last night that dynamite caps were scattered around this little community near Tulsa. Then, police were notified some children were playing with the explosives.

One cap turned up in the pocket of a little girl's coat.

Three Picked to Attend Girls State

The American Legion Auxiliary announces the following girls have been chosen as delegates for Arkansas Girls State. They are Mary Jean Sparks, Clenda Huckabee, Carolyn Strong.

The girls are selected from a list chosen by the high school faculty with the following qualifications: leadership, character, physical fitness, scholarship, cooperativeness, courage and honesty. Eligibility is limited to girls in the Junior year of high school.

At Arkansas Girls State, held June 9-15 at Camp Robinson, they will be taught a love of God and country through teaching of good leadership in government.

They will learn the duties and functions of government, voters and office holders. They have an opportunity to exercise these duties and functions by actual practice as citizens of Girl State.

The girls are sponsored by the P. E. O. The Century Bible Class of the First Methodist Church and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Guest Speaker Sunday at Tabernacle

The Rev. Claude Kendrick, President of Evangel College, Springfield, Missouri, will be the guest speaker at the Hope Gospel Tabernacle Easter Sunday at both the 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. services.

President Kendrick has been associated with Christian education for the past twenty-one years. Evangel College is a new liberal arts college, having been established in 1956. A principal feature of the ministry of Rev. Kendrick will be the showing of the new colored film, "The Miracle College," that has just been released. This film portrays the dramatic story of the acquisition of the million-dollar plant and campus of Evangel College without any cash outlay.

It is expected that a large crowd will gather to hear this outstanding speaker on Easter Sunday. There is a special gift reserved for each boy and girl attending the Sunday School hour beginning at 9:45.

Pastor Land extends a special invitation to the public to worship with them this Sunday.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

The pro and con of the proposed city manager plan, which will be decided by citywide vote next Wednesday will be discussed over KNAR beginning Saturday morning at 7:30 p. m. Five minutes will be allotted to each side.

Groups favoring the plan have indicated they will take advantage of the opportunity, whether opposition will have representation hasn't been indicated at this time.

Most of the downtown discussion comes from those favoring a city manager, although a couple of aldermen have been fairly outspoken against but two other wholeheartedly favor a manager.

There is a report of behind-the-scenes opposition but apparently the building hand doesn't wish to come out openly.

Both sides have the opportunity to discuss their convictions live at charge.

High Officials to Attend Annual Red River Meet

United States Senators Long and Ellender of Louisiana have accepted invitations to attend the "Millwood Breakfast" in Shreveport next Tuesday morning. It was announced today by Charles Conway of Texarkana, president of the Southwest Arkansas Water District.

"They will be present along with Congressman Oren Harris of Arkansas and Gen. L. E. Seeman and Gen. Elmer of the Corps of Engineers," Mr. Conway said. Others who have accepted invitations include:

Congressman Davis of Tennessee, chairman of the subcommittee on flood control; Congressman Thompson and Congressman Long of Louisiana; Colonel Blister and Leonard N. White.

Others who have been invited, but had not acknowledged invitations as of today include U. S. Senator Yarborough and Congressman Wright Patman of Texas. It was expected that Congressman Patman would be on hand as he has missed a few of the Red River Valley Association meetings in the past 31 years.

"We regret to report, however, that previous commitments will prevent the appearance of Gov. Orval Faubus and U. S. Senators McClellan and Fulbright," said Mr. Conway.

Harris Main Speaker
Congressman Oren Harris will be the principal speaker, and will bring a progress report on the Millwood Dam project to delegates parts of Southwest Arkansas. He is expected to Shreveport from all expected to be introduced by Lloyd Spencer, Hope banker and former U. S. Senator.

Congressman Davis of Tennessee, chairman of the subcommittee on flood control, is expected to speak briefly along with Senators Long and Ellender, and Gen. Seeman. Others may also appear on the program, said Mr. Conway.

A chartered bus will leave the Texarkana chamber of commerce office at 6 a. m. Tuesday for Shreveport, carrying delegations from Miller and Little River counties. Others are planning automobile trips over Highway 71 to Shreveport from Texarkana.

Hope Motorcade
In the meantime, chamber of commerce officials of Hope, were preparing for another big motorcade which will form on downtown streets and leave by police escort at 5:30 a. m. Joining the Hope motorcade will be delegates from Prescott, Fulton, and Emmet. As the caravan moves south over Highway 29, other delegations from Magnolia, Stamps, Lewisville and Bradley will join.

Transportation Chairman Sam Strong again appealed to all persons to purchase their tickets now, either from him or at the chamber of commerce office. Manager B. N. Holt reported that ticket sales had perked up considerably, and that he expected about the same size crowd that attended last year's meeting.

Israeli Warns of Continued Border Clashes

TEL AVIV (AP)—An Israeli Foreign Ministry official has warned that continuing clashes along the Israeli-Syrian frontier may be very serious.

"Israeli and Syrian forces clashed across the border for 2 hours and 40 minutes yesterday north of the Sea of Galilee. Elring stopped the Israelis said, after U. N. truce supervisors intervened with a cease-fire plea.

Both Syrians and Israelis said they had no casualties. Each accused the other of shooting first.

The clash was the ninth reported since March 20 on the Israeli-Syrian frontier. It was the first time the U. N. intervened.

Israeli military spokesmen also reported a clash along the Israeli-Jordan border near Megiddo.

They said a band of eight or nine armed Jordanians entered Israeli territory and opened fire on an Israeli patrol. The Israelis returned the fire and the Jordanians withdrew, the spokesmen added.

The Jordan-Israel Armistice Commission, meeting in Jerusalem with Israel absent, voted yesterday to censure Israel for an incident reported last Saturday.

Jordan said an Israeli army patrol crossed into Jordan and fired on a farmer. He escaped injury.

Iraq meanwhile joined the Arab states in protesting the voyage of a American tanker through the Gulf of Aqaba to the Israeli port of Eilat.

Flaming Plane Lands Safely, Pilot Credited

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An airliner landed in flames at Greater Pittsburgh Airport yesterday but thanks to a quick-acting pilot, a calm stewardess and expert fire fighters a major tragedy was averted.

Fifty passengers poured out of the Capital Airlines DC-4 seconds after it ground to a halt while flames roared along the fuselage.

Not a person was injured seriously. Nine were treated either for shock or bruises.

"When we stepped on the ground we thanked God," said Mrs. John Burnham of Buffalo. "It was with us today."

Mrs. Burnham, her husband and two young daughters were on the first leg of a vacation trip to Florida.

There was no indication of an emergency as the big airplane, piloted by R. L. Calhoun of Alexandria, Va., circled the airport and approached for a landing. But the plane landed "hard," an airport official said.

A Capitol spokesman said instruments in the cockpit indicated the landing gear was not secured so Calhoun zoomed the big ship into the air. Seconds later the right inboard engine caught fire and flames roared along the fuselage.

As the passengers tensed, the airplane's public address system blared:

"Prepare for a crash landing." There was a momentary rush of passengers toward a n emergency door and some slight panic, Mrs. Burnham said. But stewardess Katherine Szymanski of New Kensington, Pa., shouted, "Keep calm."

Capt. Calhoun, who had alerted the airport, set the plane down in a few seconds.

The Capital spokesman said there was no indication of what caused the "hard" landing on the first attempt. He declared the Buffalo-to-Pittsburgh plane could have possibly been caught in a wind current.

The spokesman said the impact of the landing apparently caused a fuel line or tank to burst.

RARE SIGHT — Buckskin mare had twin colts yesterday at the L. J. Hampton farm in the Proving Ground. And everything seems to be getting along fine. Twin mares are rare indeed, and many stockmen have never seen it happen. One colt, buckskin colored, was actually a little larger than average. The smaller colt has the black markings of the stallion. Last year about this time a cow owned by the Hamptons had twin calves.

City Manager Is Not Usually an Amateur

Unlike other forms, the administration of government under the Council-manager form is not likely to be handled by amateurs. The council is required to appoint a manager who shall be qualified for the technical job of administering the city business.

The Model City Charter specifies that: "The City Manager shall be chosen by the council solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications with special reference to his actual experience in, or his knowledge of, accepted practice in respect to the duties of his office as hereinafter set forth."

At the time of his appointment, he need not be a resident of the city or state, but during his tenure of office he shall reside within the city." Seventy-five (75) per cent of managers appointed in 1950-54 were from out of town as compared with 58 per cent for the ten-year period 1940-49.

Because the manager is appointed, not elected, he is far less likely to have political obligations which will affect the quality of his administration. Rather, self-interest must influence him to do a good job because his appointment and advancement depend directly on his record in office.

City manager has become a profession made up of those who have experience and special training in municipal administration like doctors or lawyers, city managers have a rigorous code of ethics and are obliged to live up to fixed standards of performance. The Code of Ethics adopted by the International City Manager's Association is as follows:

1. No member of the profession accepts a position as city manager unless he is fully in accord with the principles of council-manager government and unless he is confident that he is qualified to serve the community.

2. The city manager has a firm belief in the dignity and worth of the service rendered by government. He has a constructive, creative and practical attitude toward urban problems and a deep sense of his own social responsibility as a trusted public servant.

3. The city manager is governed by the highest ideals of honor and

Mt. Etna's Fiery Eruption Lessens

CATANIA, Sicily (AP)—Mt. Etna's fiery eruption lessened today and, at least for the time being, ended danger to hamlets far down on the volcano's side.

The central crater ceased its explosive action and explosions from the northeast crater became irregular and less frequent. Yesterday, quick explosions from the two craters shook the village of Zafferana, located about 2,000 feet up on the 10,750-foot volcano. The lava flow from the northeast crater oozed more than 1,000 feet down and then slackened.

Audit Books of Missing Woman

CAMDEN (AP)—Certain financial records handled by Mrs. Maude Crawford, Camden attorney who vanished from her home last March 2, are being audited.

Police Chief C. B. Cole would not comment on the audit yesterday, except to say that officers have no more to go on now than they had when the 64-year-old Mrs. Crawford disappeared.

A spokesman for an accounting firm, who requested that his name be withheld, said the records being checked are concerned with a street improvement district. Mrs. Crawford was collector for the district from 1937 to 1942.

The spokesman said that before Mrs. Crawford did work for the district, another collector had handled money paid in to retire bonds for the work. He added that the audit was requested interests which hold bonds issued by the district and said the records check will require about two weeks.

Mrs. Crawford's husband Clyde reported her disappearance. He told police he reported from a movie to find house lights burning and papers on which she had been working still spread on a table. There were no signs of a disturbance.

Sheriff Grover Linebarler and other officers conducted an intensive search of the surrounding area for several weeks but found no clues.

Linebarler said recently that the investigation of Mrs. Crawford's disappearance was being continued.

Police Seeking Girl's Slayer

NEW YORK (UP)—Patricia Ruland, 19, had coffee in a neighborhood luncheonette with two male friends Monday evening and then started the short walk, alone to ward her home.

Her battered body was thrown from a car into a rainy Brooklyn gutter one hour later and more than a mile from the place she was last seen.

The only solid clue police had was the spotting of a green car at the murder scene by a witness. Miss Helen Esposito, who found the dying girl in the street, told police she had seen her car driving away from the area.

The brief, chance encounter with the two young men was the only other indication, police said, to the pretty brunette, whereabouts between 9:15 p. m., when she left her home "for a soda" at the luncheonette, and the four blocks away and 11:40 p. m. when her screams woke residents of the fashionable, tree-lined neighborhood in which she was found.

"Officers said they had found 'no suspects' in the search for the assailant—possibly a sex criminal unknown to the girl—who crushed her head with repeated blows of a sharp metal weapon after failing in an apparent attempt to rape her.

He came in with a half a dozen colorful wide-brimmed hats with such romantic titles as "Meeting in Mayfair," "Brunch with Beethoven" and "Tea with a total stranger."

One hit which was two feet wide and named "Windsor afternoon" caught Blanche's eyes.

"This is a black palace portrait hat," murmured Mr. John, "made for half-way measures. She do

Her enthusiasm was matched by that of Mr. John, weary at the moment of decorating girls who affect short bobs or even crew cuts.

"For a long-haired woman, the hat simply must be in proportion. Hat design, after all, is basically architecture, which is basically proportion."

Mr. John, whom Napoleon is said to resemble, tosses off bun mois like this all day long.

Egypt Jubilant as British Ship Uses the Canal

B. WALTER LOGAN
UP Staff Correspondent

The British freighter West Breeze sailed through the Suez Canal today—first British ship to do so since the invasion of last October. The Egyptian press was jubilant and predicted an early end to any Western boycott of the canal.

However, government sources in London said the vessel is on charter to the Far Eastern Enterprise company, which operates for the Red Chinese. The terms of the charter were not known officially in London. But officials here said the terms probably preclude the owners from exercising control over movement of the ship.

The situation in Jordan quieted down for the moment, but the new anti-Communist policy of the Amman government had repercussions in Jerusalem today. Jordan border authorities refused to admit three Russian nuns because they carried Soviet passports.

Jordan opened the border to Russians only last Christmas, but balked at today's Easter pilgrims.

King Hussein of Jordan told United Press correspondent Joe Morris earlier in an interview that his country would fight all "imperialism," avoid foreign pacts and steer clear of such imported dogmas as Communism. But he said Jordan would observe "positive neutrality"—the course advocated by Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia.

Further Probe Into Union Payoffs Likely

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rack-ets probes said today they will explore more deeply into alleged payoffs to Teamsters Union officials in Senator.

One question intriguing them is whether or you can't jail them both—the giver or the taker of a payoff should be prosecuted.

The Justice Department has obtained federal indictments accusing three business agents of Seranton Teamsters Local 229 of receiving illegal payoffs from business firms. The Senate committee conducting the inquiry has ordered its staff to ask why no charges were brought against any of the companies or their officials.

"We are going to find out why they were not prosecuted," Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) told reporters. "It is something we ought to find out."

In reply to a question, he said, "It might be the subject of an investigation."

Meanwhile, replies to some McClellan's questions came from outside the hearing.

A pragmatic explanation came from Oliver Dibble, the special federal prosecutor in charge of the Seranton case.

"If we indicted both men in such cases," he told newsmen in Seranton, "we wouldn't be able to make one testify against the other," he added.

"The grand jury decides which one is, so to speak, the more guilty and returns the indictment against him. Then the other serves as a witness."

Also speaking out was Earl P. Beutner of Texarkana, Tex., who said at his home he had sent McClellan a telegram asking the right to appear as a witness "so that your committee can correct the injustice done at today's (Thursday's) hearings."

DOROTHY DIX

Doc's Not Making Passes — Just Feeling Your Pulse

Dear Dorothy Dix: For several months I've been having treatments for anemia. I've become quite attached to my doctor, in fact, let's face it, I'm in love with him. I know he is interested in me as a person, rather than just as a patient, but he won't come right out and say so. The way he holds my hand, looks at my lips, and talks to me is assurance enough.

I haven't nerve enough to say something to him; should I write him a letter and tell him how I feel?

Dear Lovesick: A major occupational hazard of the medical profession is the impressionable woman. If a doctor is brusque and ungracious, he's apt to lose all his female patients; if he's courteous and sympathetic, they fall in love with him. He can't win!

When your doctor holds your hand, he's more than likely feeling your pulse. If he looks at your lips, he's merely interested in their texture and color in connection with your ailment. You're paying for treatment, he's giving it to you and believe me, that's where his interest ends.

If you must dream up a romance, pick on Doc Hudson and leave the doctor alone!

Dear Dorothy Dix: For the past three years my family has taken a cottage at the same beach. Our next-door neighbor, also a summer resident, is a nice boy named Felix. We date all summer, but all winter he never writes. Do you think the way he treats me is fair?

Dear Dolly: I see nothing unfair in Felix's attitude. He's a nice date, provides you with a pleasant summer and you complain. If you think he's unfair, simply say no when he asks you for a date this summer.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My best friend's steady recently called me for a date. As I've been attracted to him, I accepted. My sister said it was a terrible thing to do, and I realize now that she was right. Now Ellen, my friend, doesn't speak to me (she was really in love with this boy). I'd like to win her friendship back. Shall I tell the boy to go back to her?

Dear Hildy: A compound disloyalty would be difficult to forget. Ellen has been unfortunate in her choice of friends, male and female; she's probably quite thoroughly finished with you both. You'll appreciate her feelings when the same dirty trick is played on you some day.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilray, D. D.

In a national magazine there recently appeared an extensive article, "Our Troubled Sunday Schools," which must have startled, and troubled, many readers, unaware of much that the article states, or at least unaware that the situation is as serious as the article indicates. Moreover, the article has impressive importance inasmuch as its author, the Rev. Wesley Strader, a Baptist minister with nineteen years of pastoral experience in Kentucky, now an associate professor of pastoral theology at Yale Divinity School, writes with unquestioned authority. If the article is in any way sensational, it is only because the plain and factual statement reveals situations far removed from the prevalent optimism concerning the well-being and influence of our Sunday schools.

The author does not indicate just how extensive are the deplorable situations he cites, but the implication seems to be that they are widespread; and through I have never run into anything as extreme as the incidents related, my experience in recent years in a number of churches as interim minister confirms much of the article in part.

Apart from inefficiency in teaching, which one might naturally expect where so much of Sunday school teaching is necessarily on a voluntary basis, and apart from a measure of the lack of discipline available in public schools, the article stresses other matters of the most serious nature.

The complaint of teachers, the article cites is the "constant laugh and talk and fight while I try to teach the lesson." It indicates a situation even less serious than the "irreverence, rowdiness (and) impudence" and the citation of classes discussing dates, fashion, dances, games, etc., when discipline fails to get attention to the lesson. I wonder how general are the conditions Prof. Strader has described. I am inclined to think that my own experiences suggest what is more generally true, little as I am inclined to question the extent of his indictment.

What I have observed and met, chiefly, is the problem of inattention, with some of the diverting tendencies, though not so marked, as those listed.

For example, a class of high school girls, whom I taught, were not all in the same class at school, and the Sunday school hour was a good opportunity for meeting and gossip I countered it mildly, and finally said that if they didn't want to be taught, I'd quit. This brought a vigorous protest, to my surprise, and there was no further trouble.

I should add that Prof. Strader did not leave the serious situation up in the air. His article ended with sound, constructive measures for dealing with the problem.

There is one possible effect of his article that I am inclined to regret. I imagine that some voluntary teacher might be inclined to get discouraged and quit. My advice is: Don't!

Also, in Sunday school teaching there is an influence that goes beyond the matter of efficiency in a technical sense.

Some technically inefficient teachers, because of their fine Christian character and purpose, may be effective in creating the Christian influences which are the best test of Sunday schools.

THE BEST CROWD TO FOLLOW IS THE CROWD GOING TO CHURCH

There's No Evil There Except What You Carry With You

The cross and the tomb have both been snatched from their association with death. Christmas is now sanctified in Easter. Dark Friday has become Good Friday. The cross and the tomb have been transformed by love and self-giving. His promise, "Three days and I shall build this temple again," has been fulfilled. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we learn to kiss the Cross, our cross as well as His. His journey to Golgotha transfigured the cross forever, turning a symbol of suffering into a symbol of triumphant life. It is the time for beginning again. This is the resurrection day...it is Easter.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statemen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good.

April Showers Show No Letup
There were widespread areas of precipitation across the nation again today as April's showery weather showed no letup. Rainfall in most of the country was light and temperatures were generally mild. However, some stormy weather was reported in sections of the Southern Plains. Areas not sprayed with the spring showers included Florida, northern New England and the far Northwest. Rain continued during the night from North Dakota through eastern Colorado and Kansas, with the wet belt extending eastward through the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the East Coast. Light snow fell in western North Dakota.

In 1900 7½ million Americans owned their homes compared with 25 million today.
There were 1,264,925,000 cases of soft drinks sold in the United States in 1935.

Spitball Charge Hurlled at Brave Pitcher Burdette

By ED WILKS

Of The Associated Press

Here we go again. Lew Burdette says he doesn't throw a spitball. Birdie Tebbets insists he does. "A cheating spitballer," says the Cincinnati manager. But Warren Giles says "you have to prove it to me."

Whatever Burdette, Milwaukee's shutout ace, does when he spins his stuff for the Braves, old Spitz Palge had a term for it - "out-psychologizin' the hitter."

That's what Burdette had in mind when he said "It's the best pitch I've got - and I don't throw it," in reply to Tebbets' renewed cry after the Redlegs lost to the big right-hander 1-0 yesterday. It was the eighth successive time Burdette, who led the National League with six shutouts midlast season, has whipped Cincinnati and Tebbets is "pretty tired of him getting away with murder."

Burdette, who insists Burdette "went to his mouth before every pitch," chirped so loud his boss, General Manager Gabe Paul, decided to lodge an official protest against him and ask Giles, the league president, for a clarification of rule 8.02, which states a pitcher cannot "apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball" under penalty of a 10-day suspension.

"Until someone—the umpires or someone—presents evidence that Burdette is using the spitball I'll do nothing about it," said Giles, adding that "a lot of pitchers make a hitter think they're throwing a spitball, but there's nothing illegal about it."

Legal or not, Burdette's victory, fashioned on Hank Aaron's first home run of the year in the sixth inning off loser Hall Jeffcoat, handed the winless Redlegs a second defeat and left the Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers the only unbeaten clubs in the league.

The Dodgers, with Sal Maglie throwing a four-hitter, knocked off Pittsburgh 6-1. The Chicago Cubs cracked 15 hits to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 10-2. And the New York Giants kept Philadelphia winless 6-2.

In the American, the winless Detroit Tigers lost their third in a row, this time to Cleveland, 8-3 in 11 innings. The New York Yankees again had to rally in the ninth, beating Boston 3-2. Chicago's White Sox handed Kansas City its first defeat, 6-2, behind Jack Harshman's four-hitter. And Washington finally became a winner with a 6-4 job on Baltimore.

Maglie, who will be 40 a week from today, struck out five and walked three while gaining a 28-5 lifetime record against the Pirates in his 200th major league start. The lone Pirate runner was unearned. Duke Snider, the NL's defending home run king, smacked his first of the year and Gil Hodges hit his second for the Brooks, who cracked southpaw Luis Arroyo and three relievers for 14 hits.

Young Moo Drabowsky, the Cubs' bonus right-hander, permitted just four hits in whipping the Cards. Gene Baker led the assault on Murry Dickson and four

Porkers Grab Twin Bill at McNeese

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—The University of Arkansas grabbed victories in both games of a baseball double header played against McNeese State yesterday, scoring 7-0 and 4-3.

Shorstop Larry Stotzer cinched the first game in the third with a 2-run single following a single, an error and a passed ball.

Stotzer also did his bit for the Razorbacks in the nightcap by blasting a bases loaded home run in the first inning after two errors and an out.

Furgol, Palmer Have Stroke Lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—A pair of "opposites" in the world of golf took off in the second round of the $40,000 Tournament of Champions today sharing a one-stroke lead over a closely-bunched field of 23.

Battling for the $10,000 first prize were Ed Furgol, the lame-armed swinger from St. Andrews, Ill., who missed eight putts of less than four feet yesterday and still came in with an even-par 72; and the picture-swinger, young Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa.

The weather was so bad yesterday that their 72s were regarded as classics in the world of championship golf. But for all their efforts they held only a one-stroke lead over defending champion Gene Littler, former champion Art Wall, the Texas wind player; Fred Hawkins, and the ancient Jimmy Demaret, who never has been known to post a poor score in rugged weather.

"Anybody who would play golf in this kind of weather must be an idiot," said Demaret. But he played.

Card relief pitchers, driving in four runs with a triple, double and single, Stan Musial, his back in shape, played his 77th consecutive game, but was hitless.

Ruben Gomez, backed up by Hank Sauer's 25th home run, and a three-run homer by Gail Harris, beat the Phils and Curt Simmons with an eight-hitter.

Rookie Roger Harris made his first major league home run the major's first grand slammer of the season, capping a five-run 11th for the Tribe. Bobby Avila's sacrifice fly scored the run that broke a 3-all tie. Ray Nelski won it with Al Aber the lower, both in relief.

Pete Ramons gave up only three hits in 6 1-3 relief innings to win for the Senators. Ra Moore, who walked 10, was the loser.

The Yankees needed a pop-fly RBI triple by Gil McDougald and Elston Howard's single for two ninth-inning runs in edging the Red Sox and Frank Sullivan, who retired 19 in a row at one point, and Bob Grim won in relief.

Harshman rode in one back-to-back homers by Minnie Minoso and Sherm Lollar, good for three seventh-inning runs and a solo shot of his own in the eighth. Loser Alex Kellner and Joe DeMaestri homered for the A's.

Mitchell Will Greet 81 Hog Grid Prospects

FAYETTEVILLE (AP)—Coach Jack Mitchell will greet 81 Arkansas Razorbacks when the University of Arkansas' belated spring football practice begins Monday.

Other members of the Southwest Conference wrapped up their spring sessions quite a while ago.

Thirty guards and tackles will be on hand in this year's contingent. A total of 20 lettermen, three of them from the 1955 team, will be included.

The consensus has it that 11 of the lettermen will have the nod at the season's start for Mitchell's first-line team. But after that the scramble will be on.

With possible exceptions of guard, quarterback and fullback, newcomers are expected to flood the traveling squad.

Besides the lettermen, a breakdown shows 32 sophomores-to-be from the 1956 Shoats, 11 players with varsity squad experience, six acknowledged "red-shirts" held over for training and classified as sophs this year, plus 12 others of B-team background.

Mitchell is expected to sort his roster into working teams quickly and probably will push into heavy work by the week's end.

Saturday scrimmage games are planned each week, highlighted by the Red-White game May 18.

Five starters from 1956 are coming back: Center Jay Donathan, right guard Stuart Perry, quarterback Don Christian, left halfback Donnie Stone and fullback Gerald Nesbitt.

The combination of this group and 10 members of the "No. 2" unit and six from the third string will bring 11 of the top 33 players from 1956 into the field again.

Other returning 1956 lettermen include ends Bob Chidress and Charles Whitworth; tackles Richard Bennett, Rolfe Luptow and Greg Pinkston; guards Jimmy Van Dover, Billy Gilbow, Billy Michael and Jerry Ford; quarterback James Monroe; halfback Don Tischel and fullback Jerry Ferguson.

The trio from the 1955 team includes quarterback George Walker, halfback Don Horton and tackle Jess Deason.

Walker and Horton were sidelined with injuries suffered in pre-season scrimmages last fall.

ed right along with the rest of them.

The weather forecast for today was for calm and sunny. That would be a vast difference from yesterday. The gales blew sand across the desert at 30 miles an hour and the north wind brought in cold, chilling rains later.

Archery Range Is Planned at Fair Park

The Parks and Recreational Dept. is planning to set up a full time Archery range at the Fair Park for the summer months. Plans so far are to provide for school children in the sixth grade and above on up through High School. A schedule will be set up giving each participant a definite time for Archery classes.

In order to carry out this program, it will be necessary to charge each person $1.50 per month, which will take care of paying an instructor and buying necessary equipment. A person could take Archery for the entire summer for $4.50 which would be less than half the cost of a bow alone. And all equipment will be furnished.

The Dept. in setting up this program, would also like to provide for any interested adults. Archery is a very popular sport for adults all over the nation and has caused quite a bit of enthusiasm in Hope. The cost for adults would run between $1.50 and $2.00 per month and both children and adults would get 20 hours of instruction per month which would boil down to about 75c per hour.

Adults interested in this program should contact Charles Gough or Judy Franks immediately. School children should notify their home room teachers. If the demand is not too great, children will be taken from the fifth grades. Those interested should notify their teachers in case facilities are ample to include the fifth grade group. The Dept. is attempting to set up the program so as not to crowd any class and give each student a maximum of instruction.
